1. Introduction

Ireland faces complex social challenges that our current systems are struggling to solve. As a result, the most vulnerable and marginalised people in our society are often the most affected.

Since 2004, Social Entrepreneurs Ireland has been empowering high-potential, entrepreneur-led organisations to tackle these pressing issues and drive meaningful, lasting social change.

To date, we have supported over 600 social entrepreneurs across the island of Ireland and we do this in two ways:

1. We identify individuals with unique insights and scalable solutions to social problems

2. We provide them with the funding, training, and connections needed to grow their impact

Our approach is built through a three-tiered approach: delivering one-to-one support, building organisational capacity, and developing powerful networks.

We work closely with social entrepreneurs at every stage of their journey, offering tailored mentorship, strategic guidance, and expert-led training to strengthen their organisations. Our support extends beyond funding—we help them build resilience, refine their leadership skills, and develop the tools needed to sustain and scale their impact.

Beyond individual support, we connect entrepreneurs to a thriving ecosystem of peers, alumni, pro bono experts, and sector leaders. By raising their profile through media, sector recognition, and speaking opportunities, we help social entrepreneurs gain credibility and amplify their impact.

Through this comprehensive approach, Social Entrepreneurs Ireland ensures that those tackling Ireland's biggest social challenges have the resources, skills, and networks they need to create lasting change.

We welcome applications from people of all backgrounds and we are committed to providing equal opportunities regardless of gender identity, marital status, family status, age, disability, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity or religion.
(Equal Status Acts, 2000-2018).

"If you are trying to solve a problem in society but feel you do not have time, don't know enough, or are apprehensive to engage with a programme from Social Entrepreneurs Ireland then you're exactly the type of person who needs this. It is impossible to have all the answers. It is so fantastic to have people who are there just for you with a broad interest in trying to help you and expertise and contacts in every industry. Social Entrepreneurs Ireland's support can deepen your impact, can challenge you and bring you along the right path for the change you want to make."

2. The Impact Programme

The Impact Programme supports developing stage social entrepreneurs like you once you have piloted your solution, demonstrated impact, are ready to strengthen your foundations to ensure you thrive and identify your route to scaling (whether that be scaling out, scaling deep or scaling up) so you can have your greatest impact.

We are looking for 5 high potential social entrepreneur-led organisations to take part in our Impact Programme.

The programme provides targeted support and engagement through a series of activities: Discovery Sessions, Co-Design Days, Group Sessions and Individual Supports. These sessions are facilitated by members of our team and wider community including our supporters, fellow support organisations, partners, funders, sector expert consultants and alumni.

PROGRAMME GOALS

All activities are aligned with four overarching goals.

Stronger Organisations: Training, advice and support in areas related to improving your organisation's structure, operational capacity, solution delivery, financial capacity and impact measurement.

Impactful Voices: Communication skills in various forms enabling you to tell your story and engage more effectively with a range of stakeholders and audiences

Resilient Leaders: Leadership development to strengthen your resilience and adaptability.

Long-Lasting Social Change: Tackling the problem, not just delivering the solution including network building and collaborations within the eco-system.

TRUST-BASED FUNDING

Alongside this we will also provide you with €20,000 in unrestricted funding to invest in whichever part of the organisation you believe needs it most, trusting that you are the expert when it comes to your organisation.

Your Greatest Impact

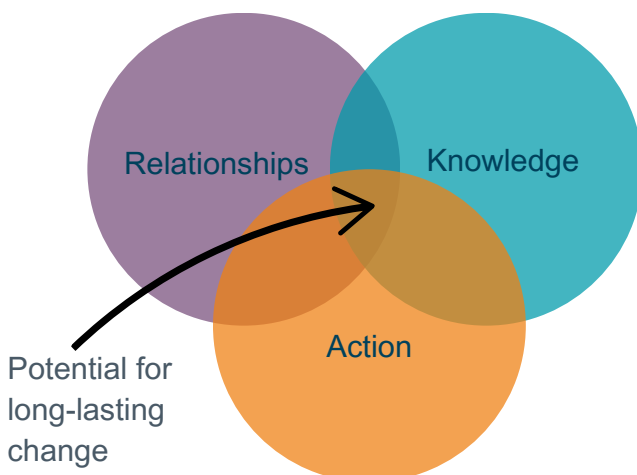

We know that one of the greatest challenges for you at this stage is identifying your individual route to scaling so that you can have your greatest impact.

ROUTE TO SCALING

Our learnings from previous programmes and insights from research into transformation demonstrates that the process of identifying each individual route to scaling is complex and iterative and requires time, space, expertise and a willingness to dive deep.

The Impact Programme, with its combination of funding, coaching, peer support, expert guidance and high quality consultancy offers you a unique opportunity to, not just build your organisation, but also develop that clear understanding of the multiple pathways to scaling (out, deep or up) to help you identify where you can have your greatest impact.

The 2025 Impact Programme will be structured over three interconnected phases.

The first phase focuses on building relationships. These relationships include with: the SEI team, your peers, the wider community and with yourself as you take that deep dive into your own story, values, critical success factors, strengths and vision.

The second phase will focus on enhancing your knowledge and skills. This will include introducing you to new ideas and theories around the potential routes to scaling alongside increasing your competence in various required areas such as HR and finances.

The third phase allows you to translate your learnings into action by creating tangible pieces of work, such as three-year plans and marketing strategies, either autonomously or with consultants/ advisors.

The programme also gives you the opportunity to explore options, experiment, learn and refine your social impact model.

It is this combination of Relationships, Knowledge and Action that we believe can bring about long-lasting change.

We were never meant to do this alone

At Social Entrepreneurs Ireland, we understand the exciting yet challenging and sometimes lonely journey of a social entrepreneur.

Often, the initial stages of this journey demand your passion, creativity and bravery to take those difficult and crucial first steps. However, for social entrepreneurs at the Impact Programme stage, we recognise the need to develop and lean on other strengths such as strategic visioning, systems thinking, leadership and collaboration.

At the developing stage you may often be expanding your team, building your board, managing partnership relationships, advocating, lobbying and stepping beyond the role of founder to CEO.

All of these exciting steps to growth bring a myriad of challenges.

Challenges that can sometimes be difficult to share with friends, family or your team as they are often unique to the journey of a social entrepreneur and the difficult balance between social and commercial goals.

The peer support we provide as part of the Impact Programme is crucial to its success. The focus on connections and relationships is important at every step of the process, from the Selection Workshops to the Discovery sessions, the Co-Design Days, the group coaching sessions and the multiple opportunities to learn with and from each other.

We are looking for people who both have a brilliant solution with the potential to bring about real impact and also have the capability, desire and willingness to connect and support others on the journey.

“As a recipient of Social Entrepreneurs Ireland’s support, my achievements have been significantly amplified in ways I could not have accomplished otherwise. The inclusion in a new peer group has provided invaluable support and training, fostering an environment where collaboration and shared learning thrive.”

5. Our Evaluation Criteria

Throughout the application process, we aim to understand your story, delving into your understanding of the social or environmental issue, the evolution of your solution, plans for the growth of your organisation, your team and your impact and your long-term vision for an Ireland where the problem you are tackling has been solved or significantly changed in some way. The Evaluation Criteria we use are set out below.

1. Spirit of a Social Entrepreneur

Tell us your story—what drives you to create social or environmental change? We're looking for passionate, determined leaders with a clear vision for their solution. Share why you're the right person to lead this initiative and make a lasting impact.

2. Solution Fit

A strong solution starts with a deep understanding of the problem. We want to see a clear grasp of both the broader issue and the specific challenge you're addressing, including the affected group(s) and the barriers they face. Your solution should outline a clear plan to tackle these obstacles effectively.

3. Solution Evolution

Tell us how your solution has developed over time. We're particularly interested in how you've adapted based on feedback and lessons learned, demonstrating your ability to refine and improve. Share your team's growth, the impact you've made, and how you've assessed changes at each stage.

4. Steps to Growth

This section focuses on practical expansion plans. We want to know how you intend to scale, what resources you need, your financial model, and how you'll ensure long-term sustainability.

5. Social Change

Describe your vision for lasting change in Ireland if your problem were solved. How does your solution improve or complement existing efforts? We also want to understand your collaborations with stakeholders and how broader shifts in behaviour, culture, policies, or institutions might drive systemic impact.

How we Use our Evaluation Criteria

At each stage of the Selection process we focus on different Evaluation Criteria - as set out below.

At every stage we also assess your overall fit and readiness for the programme, your commitment to bringing about change, to engaging with SEI and your fellow social entrepreneurs and your willingness to make best use of the programme's supports.

APPLICATION

At the application stage we will focus primarily on your solution, how it evolved and the extent to which you can demonstrate that it is addressing the problem you have identified. Our emphasis on 'solution fit' stems from the belief that you cannot have a viable solution without an in-depth understanding of the problem.

ASSESSMENT WORKSHOPS

During the workshops we will focus on your fit for the programme including your willingness and curiosity to dive deep and your collaborative skills that allow you to work with others.

FINAL INTERVIEW

The interviews are our opportunity to explore your vision for the future - both for your organisation and how you envision its growth but also your broader vision for bringing about social change.
